

KENTUCKY IRISH AMERICAN.

VOLUME XIX.—NO. 12.

LOUISVILLE, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1907.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

PRIMARY.

Owen Tyler For Mayor Now the Democratic Standard Bearer.

Only Seven Contests to Be Settled at Election on Tuesday.

Thomas Shelley and Mike Tynan Certain to Win Their Races.

LOCAL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE NAMED

The Democratic City and County Executive Committee met Wednesday night, when Owen Tyler for Mayor and all the candidates for nomination who had no opposition were declared the nominees. There was no opposition for any of the city offices except in that of City Tax Receiver, for which both C. W. Milliken and Thomas A. Shelley were candidates, and for Bailiff of the City Court, for which Mike Tynan and Richard C. Bennett are running. There was opposition for nomination in four legislative districts, the thirty-seventh, forty-fourth, forty-fifth and forty-sixth, also for the office of Constable. Shelley and Tynan have records that are unsurpassed, and while opposed by good men they are certain to be nominated by overwhelming majorities. Those declared nominees and whose names will not appear on the primary are: Mayor—Owen Tyler. County Judge—Marion W. Rippy. County Clerk—Walter Hatfield. County Attorney—William J. O'Connor. County Assessor—John M. Adams. County Jailor—John R. Plafie. County Coroner—Dr. Charles Mohr. County Surveyor—L. D. Hollingsworth. City Treasurer—Louis E. Stein. City Auditor—Lyne Herndon. Judge of Police Court—James P. Reedy. City Prosecuting Attorney—Robert J. Hagan. Clerk of Police Court—Charles D. Greer. Representative Forty-seventh District—James A. Hagan. Representative Forty-eighth District—Edward M. Flexner. Representative Forty-ninth District—William A. Perry. Representative Fiftieth District—Thomas Moran. Representative Fifty-first District—Joseph M. Lee. Following are the names of candidates who have opposition, and the order in which they will appear on the ballots in the primary election: City Tax Receiver—C. W. Milliken and Thomas A. Shelley. Bailiff of City Court—Mike Tynan and Richard C. Bennett. Senator Thirty-seventh District—Harry W. Robinson and Thomas D. Osborne. Forty-fourth Legislative District—Charles P. Johnson, Lloyd W. Gates and J. B. Gutrie. Forty-fifth Legislative District—John Keating, John D. Clausen and J. E. Merrick. Forty-sixth Legislative District—Christ Mueller, George M. Goetz, Constable Eighth Magistrate District—Joseph J. Nelligan and Albert H. Haeckel.

From the foregoing lists it will be seen that the Democrats are sure of an exceedingly strong ticket and one that should win in November. At the same meeting a committee was selected by the Democratic Committee to conduct the campaign during the ensuing election. The Campaign Committee will select its own Chairman and Secretary, and the members for the county will be selected later. Those named are: First ward—Wallace Embury. Second ward—Joseph Steurle. Third ward—W. A. Reiser. Fourth ward—A. E. Emmer. Fifth ward—Capt. Elijah Basye. Sixth ward—Samuel S. Blitt. Seventh ward—Baylor Hickman. Eighth ward—James A. Shuttleworth. Ninth ward—William J. Baird. Tenth ward—Dr. Frank B. Norton. Eleventh ward—Ed. J. O'Brien. Twelfth ward—Dr. W. R. Laughlin. The voting places for Tuesday's primary will be those that have been used in former elections.

POLICE GUARD

Detailed to Protect Cardinal Del Val From Further Insult.

The Italian Ministry of the Interior has ordered twenty-five carabinieri and about thirty policemen of the bicycle squad to Castel Gandolfo to protect Cardinal Merry Del Val, the Papal Secretary of State, from further insult. It will be the duty of the mounted carabinieri to cover the route to Rome whenever the Cardinal Secretary of State notifies the police officials that he will ride in his carriage to the Vatican. As to the bicycle policemen, they never leave the Papal villa at Castel Gandolfo, and four of them are now always stationed in front of its imposing gates, ready to follow the Cardinal whenever his carriage makes an appearance.

The Cardinal is just as busy at Castel Gandolfo as he was at the Vatican Palace in Rome. He is connected by direct wire with the Papal telephone. He has to advise the Pope about important matters, to direct the whole diplomatic policy of the Holy See even when on his vacation; he has to take care of the business of the several Roman congregations of which he is a member, and attend personally to the administration of the Vatican Palace. All this the Cardinal does every day during his vacation, and when night comes a special messenger from the Vatican, generally a prelate, reaches the Papal villa with a bagful of mail. As to amusements during his vacation, the Cardinal has a few. One is to go out on the balcony of the Papal villa and throw down handfuls of pennies to the urchins who are always waiting for his appearance. Another enjoyment of the Cardinal is fishing, which is excellent in the lake near the Papal residence.

THOMAS KALAHAR.

Louisville Loses Another of Her Worthy Pioneer Citizens.

In the death of Thomas Kalahar, which occurred on Thursday, September 12, from the infirmities incident to old age, Louisville has lost one of her most patriotic Irish-American citizens, and the church one of her most devoted and loyal sons. Thomas Kalahar was born in the County of Galway, Ireland, seventy-five years ago, and came to Louisville as a vigorous young man of twenty. A few years after his arrival he and his aged wife, who survives him, were married last June fifty-one years ago by Father Elder in the prebendial chapel of Jefferson street, above Fremont, which was the cradle in which the future strong and thriving St. John's congregation, now for over fifty-one years under the pastorate of the venerable Father Bax, was fostered in its infancy. To this congregation Mr. Kalahar belonged deeply, and in its present magnificent edifice all of his children were baptized and received their religious instruction, as also their training in its parochial school, until in his later years, finding that the home in which he was born, and which his life was within the limits of St. Mary Magdalene's congregation, he sought the consolations of his holy religion within the closer house of God and became an ardent admirer of his genial pastor, the Rev. William Gausepohl. When the death of his ripe old age had rushed in him his remarkable vitality he had the consolation of having at his bedside in his last declining hours the company of his loving consort in life, and the tender ministrations of their five devoted children, Martin, Mary, Katie, Nora and John. Mr. Kalahar, pastor of St. John's church, he is also survived by a brother and two sisters in Ireland and one sister in this city, Mrs. Fergus Fallon. It was the sons of two of his sisters who bore his remains as pall-bearers, namely, the Rev. John D. Fallon, Jr., and Martin, Michael, James and Joseph Finegan. The funeral, which was largely attended, was held on Monday, September 16, from St. Mary Magdalene's church, where three masses for the repose of his soul were offered up simultaneously, the solemn requiem by the pastor, with the Rev. John T. Hill as deacon, the Rev. George M. Connor as sub-deacon, and the Rev. Joseph A. Minch as master of ceremonies; and a low mass at each of the side altars by the Rev. Edward W. Rex and the Rev. John D. Kalahar. Present in the sanctuary were also the Very Rev. James P. Cronin, V. G., and the Revs. E. M. Bachmann, J. B. Ford, J. J. Fitzgerald, D. J. Murphy, Erle Willett, Thomas A. Murray and John T. Hill, and whilst the sorrowing family and friends were consigning the remains to their final resting place their grief was assuaged by the solemn chant of the priests who were in attendance.

SENSATION PROMISED.

The meeting of Division 1, A. O. H., next Friday night, promises to be the most sensational in the history of that organization. Disappointed at the lack of interest and small attendance at meetings, the regents have threatened to introduce resolutions for dividing the funds in the hands of the regents among those present and making a new start. At the meeting held on Friday night of last week the attendance was only fair, and this led to the action that is threatened, which President Clines had deferred. Louis Perranda was able to be out with his broken arm, and Martin Norton was reported sick. An invitation was received and accepted to attend the initiation under the auspices of Division 3. Martin Cusick, James Barry and Thomas Keenan made stirring talks and promised to be at the next meeting.

WELCOME VISITOR.

The Kentucky Irish American was pleased to meet this week Mr. J. J. Sullivan, State President of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and one of the leading lawyers of Florida, who made a short stop in Louisville en route to his home in Pensacola, after a trip to New York on law business. While here he called upon Martin Cusick, George J. Butler, John Mulloy and others whom he had met at national conventions. He was pleased with his reception here and says Louisville is the pride of the South.

AGAIN ON DUTY.

The six members of the No. 3 Hook and Ladder Company, among them Capt. Mike Cassin and James Malone, who were badly bruised and injured while making a run last Friday, are again on duty. The hook and ladder team became frightened and run away, colliding with an iron fence and throwing the six men from the truck. Both horses were so badly injured they had to be killed.

ERIN IN AUTO.

Alderman Michael Kenna Extols the Beauties of Old Ireland.

Prefers America, and Especially Chicago, to Any Part of World.

Cork, Limerick and Tipperary Are Pleasant For the Stranger.

SOME VERY AMUSING EXPERIENCES

Standing on the promenade deck of the Amerika when it reached New York Saturday morning from Cherbourg, a man of diminutive stature removed a cigar from his mouth and smiled complacently as he spoke to a companion by his side. "London and Paris are in the money, Niek, but they haven't got anything on little old Broadway, have they? And Chicago has got 'em all skinned. Ain't that right?" The little man was Alderman Michael Kenna, of Chicago, and the one to whom he addressed his remarks was "Niek" Martin, his private secretary. Mrs. Kenna and Miss Rafferty, who was one of the Alderman's party that toured Ireland in an automobile, also were passengers on the Amerika. When seen after disembarking the Alderman said:

"We had a most enjoyable trip, but I'm glad to be in God's country again. Europe is all right for sight-seeing, but I wouldn't care to live over there all the time. The people are different and the customs are different from what we are used to in America, and as I'm not built like Waldorf Astor or the other 'geezer' who have been settled for life in Europe this country is good enough for me. We left New York July 11 and landed in Queenstown after a voyage of eight days. When I bought my tickets I told the man who was to take me to the ship that I was going to a slow boat. Some thing went wrong with the tide just as the ship got squared around and we lay off Coney Island for twelve hours. During that time I had a good chance to size up the Statue of Liberty that rises out of the sea. I was saying to Niek this morning that I saw a whole lot of that kind of stuff on the other side, but nothing in Europe looked as good to me as the little lady who stands there in the harbor holding a torch in her 'mit'."

When the sun of his ripe old age had rushed in him his remarkable vitality he had the consolation of having at his bedside in his last declining hours the company of his loving consort in life, and the tender ministrations of their five devoted children, Martin, Mary, Katie, Nora and John. Mr. Kalahar, pastor of St. John's church, he is also survived by a brother and two sisters in Ireland and one sister in this city, Mrs. Fergus Fallon. It was the sons of two of his sisters who bore his remains as pall-bearers, namely, the Rev. John D. Fallon, Jr., and Martin, Michael, James and Joseph Finegan. The funeral, which was largely attended, was held on Monday, September 16, from St. Mary Magdalene's church, where three masses for the repose of his soul were offered up simultaneously, the solemn requiem by the pastor, with the Rev. John T. Hill as deacon, the Rev. George M. Connor as sub-deacon, and the Rev. Joseph A. Minch as master of ceremonies; and a low mass at each of the side altars by the Rev. Edward W. Rex and the Rev. John D. Kalahar. Present in the sanctuary were also the Very Rev. James P. Cronin, V. G., and the Revs. E. M. Bachmann, J. B. Ford, J. J. Fitzgerald, D. J. Murphy, Erle Willett, Thomas A. Murray and John T. Hill, and whilst the sorrowing family and friends were consigning the remains to their final resting place their grief was assuaged by the solemn chant of the priests who were in attendance.

"Give me a chance to square myself with my 'constits' by saying that the whole of Ireland, from coast to coast, is a garden spot. I drove an automobile over the whole of Ireland, and I promise you that nothing was sidestepped. In some of the smaller towns, away up north in the County Antrim, I was told that our auto was the first one ever seen there. On the road from Kangan to Derry we passed a man driving a cart that was filled with vegetables for the Ballymore market. 'Blood and oims, Jerry,' shouted the jerry to the donkey, 'there comes a thommondean an' th' devil himself is pushing it.' Our tour of Ireland was divided into three excursions. Dublin was the headquarters, and from there we 'dicked' out into the different counties. After a couple of days at the Dublin exposition we went up into the province of Ulster. Causeway, one of the grandest sights of Ireland. Our next trip was through the center and the southeast of Ireland. The Wicklow Mountains and the Vale of Aven were the principal points of interest we saw on this tour with a bunch of round towers thrown in. I tried to Ireland up to the ruins of those old castles, but it was no go. That kind of stuff looks like a case of empties to me. 'On the third and last trip from Dublin we visited the west and south-western part of the country, and I wish I could have brought it back with me. Man, dear, but the people of Cork and Limerick and Tipperary and Kilkenny know how to make it pleasant to a stranger. In fact the glad hand we received wherever we went was one of the pleasures of the trip. It wasn't a case of looking for a tip, either. A sixpence to a sharaveshocht (that's Irish for servant) looks as big as a policeman's star. If you'd hand anything less than a franc to one of those 'garsons' waiters in Paris he'd have you pinched. The last place we visited in Ireland was the town of Youghal, a half mile from the coast. I went there to see Ed Lahiff, who used to be Mayor Harrison's secretary. He had been in poor health for some time, he said, but he was feeling well again. Nothing would do but we had to stay for dinner with him. I never ate such corned beef and cabbage in all my life. The floughoola (reception) he gave our party was grand. Before we left he gave us 'dhue and dhuris' (drink at the door) with him. "It was our good fortune to be at Drogheda on the last Sunday in July, which they call Garlick Sunday. New potatoes are due on this day, and as the country around Drogheda produces the finest potatoes in the world, the opening of the season is a big event. Mrs. Kenna and Miss Rafferty and myself had a feed of new potatoes and buttermilk. Niek turned up his nose at it because he's a Dutchman. If a man could ship potatoes and buttermilk from Drogheda to Chicago and have a restaurant on Clark street he'd put those chop suey dumps out of business. From Ireland we went to London for a week, and then to Paris for ten days. I didn't see anything in either city that we can't shoot down in Chicago, except a lot of old junk."

In summing up his impressions of Ireland the Alderman says: "Ireland sets forth a most interesting picture of the most beautiful and the most beautiful of the world. Kerry the most buxter and Louth the meekest potatoes."

ENCYCLICAL

Condemns Modernism as Serious Menace to the Church.

The Osservatore Romano, organ of the Vatican, Monday issued an important encyclical of Pope Pius X. on "Modernism," which really is a completion of his recent syllabus. The document sets forth that modernism is a serious danger to the church, refers in detail to the various features of modernism, condemns it as dangerous in philosophy, faith, theology, history, criticism and reforms, and comes to the conclusion that modernism is a synthesis of all heresies and must legally lead to atheism. The encyclical makes the following provisions:

First—The teaching of philosophy, positive theology, etc., is to be carried on in the church, schools and universities, but in a Catholic spirit. Second—Modernism is to be removed from professorships and the direction of educational institutions. Third—The clergy and faithful are not to be allowed to read modernist publications.

Fourth—A committee of censorship is to be established in every diocese to pass upon the publications which the clergy and faithful shall be permitted to read.

Fifth—The encyclical of the late Pope Leo XIII., prohibiting the clergy from assuming the direction of public affairs without their Bishop's permission and providing for supervision of the work of ecclesiastical writers, is confirmed.

Sixth—Ecclesiastical congresses, except on rare occasions, are prohibited.

Seventh—A council is to be constituted in every diocese to combat modern errors.

RECENT DEATHS.

The funeral of Lulu Athow, aged thirty-one, took place Tuesday morning at St. Patrick's church. She resided at 1131 West Chestnut.

Daniel and Susie Rafferty have the sympathy of friends in the death of their infant daughter Mary, whose funeral took place Wednesday afternoon.

Mary Meffert, beloved wife of Peter Meffert and mother of Mrs. John Weber, was called to eternity last Sunday at the age of sixty years. Her funeral took place Tuesday from St. Boniface church, of which she was one of the older members.

Thursday morning after funeral services at St. Louis Bertrand's the remains of Mrs. Anna Welch were laid to rest to await the resurrection. She was the wife of John Welch, 1234 Eighth street, and her death caused feelings of deep grief in the community where she lived.

Funeral services over the remains of Theodore Schene were held Sunday afternoon at St. Charles' church. His death was wholly unexpected and the sad news greatly shocked his many friends. The deceased was thirty-five years old and is survived by his wife, who was Miss Lillie Blunt.

MACKIN COUNCIL.

Mackin Council elected one member and received another application Tuesday night, when the initiation was postponed to the second week in October, to enable Dan Weber to organize a special choir. Two more members, Clarence Zook and Arthur Senn, were reported sick and their names added to the list. Committees were named by President Sand to have improvements made that will add to the comforts of the club house during the winter. The social club reported that the opening dance Monday night was successful in every way.

JOCKEY CLUB FALL RACING.

The Kentucky Racing Commission has granted the Louisville Jockey Club sixteen days, beginning October 16 and ending November 2, for its fall meeting, which is predicted to be the largest and best ever held in the South or West. For the protection of the sport the racing Commission adopted a rule preventing bookmakers and jockeys from owning, running or training horses where they operate.

DEL VAL.

Papal Secretary of State During Most Momentous Crises.

How the Office Came Into Being in the Fifteenth Century.

Exercises Fascination and Is Most Visited Man in the Eternal City.

IMPORTANCE OF HIS GREAT POST

So much has been written in the past few years of the fascinating personality of that popular prelate, Cardinal Merry Del Val, that it is well to consider exactly in what consist the functions appertaining to the lofty office he has occupied during one of the most momentous crises of the Catholic church. The Papal Secretaryship of State, as now constituted, was created in the fifteenth century, and came into being as the result of the change of the politico-religious situation arising from various schisms. Previously the government of the church had been theological or canonical, political negotiations being practically unknown, since the Holy See only commanded and affirmed, and never discussed. The growth of the Papal States naturally gave rise to political exigencies requiring the creation of a permanent post, really entitled all the energies and attention of the occupant, won for its holder the title of Cardinal of Padua, or Master-Cardinal, a prestige which still attaches to it. It is above every other Cardinal in official importance and dignity. How necessary it is that the Vatican should have its Prime Minister, can be seen when one considers that the following countries have their special representatives at the Court of the Sovereign Pontiff: Austria, Spain, Prussia, Bavaria, Portugal, Belgium, Brazil, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, Haiti, San Domingo and Monaco. On her part the church has her diplomatic representatives in Austria, Spain, Portugal, Belgium, Bavaria, Holland and Brazil, with delegates-apostolic for Ecuador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Santo Domingo and Venezuela. Russia has also an official representative at Rome.

Twice a week, on Tuesdays and Fridays, the Cardinal Secretary receives in turn the ambassadors and special envoys. This is the Secretary's first function, his second being the conducting of a voluminous mass of correspondence with the nuncios and internuncios, the dealing with their reports and despatching instructions for their guidance. Diplomatic dinners are of rare occurrence at the Vatican, only taking place on the occasion of the holding of consistories. Etiquette forbids the Pope being present at the duty of entertaining guests being left to the Secretary of State, his deputy.

Every morning the Cardinal Secretary is received by his Holiness, when the "situation" as regards the church is discussed, the Pope having been previously supplied with all the latest newspaper despatches affecting the political or religious condition of the world. On leaving the Pope, usually at 9 o'clock in the morning, a day of hard work begins for the Secretary, the strenuousness of which is not surpassed in the cabinet of any prime minister in the world. Under his orders are a score of ecclesiastical secretaries, to whom the Secretary of State dictates or sketches the nature of instructions in certain difficulties. This done, a series of propositions have to be prepared for presentation on the next day to the Pontiff, since nothing is done without his orders or instructions.

As the Angelus rings, the Cardinal Secretary leaves his cabinet in order to receive his guests in the reception hall, set aside for his particular use. Here may be seen people of distinction from all countries of the world. In the case of Merry Del Val the peculiar fascination he exercises over people made him the most visited man in the Eternal City. It is no uncommon sight to see the following company at his receptions: An English duke, not a Catholic; a New York newspaper man belonging to a non-sectarian journal; the Chief of an Irish Jesuit College; an Irish parish priest; a sporting English squire; the Austrian ambassador to Italy; a member of the House of Commons; a Chicago millionaire with a couple of Harvard sons; an officer in the English Horse guards; a Spanish bishop; a missionary from Africa—surely an interesting collection of human beings as any host could desire. At his "business" receptions he has met, says a French writer, of more mental agility than is given to most of the sons of men. He can not plead that anything is outside his province, since he is netting for the Pope, in whose province for adjudication everything lies. In many ways the Cardinal Secretary must be a mental gymnast and it is universally admitted that the present dignitary is equal to all demands on his tact, patience and capacity for giving his supplicants satisfaction.

The department of the Papal Secretary is divided into two sections, that of the secretariat proper, prelates, confidential secretaries, deputies for the Cardinal Secretary; and that of "Extraordinary Ecclesiastical Affairs," a body of prelates specially enjoined to watch the whole political drama of the world, day by day, and to report upon such events as they think impinge upon the province of the church. It is in these administrative bureaux that all distinguished prelates of the church begin their careers.

CATHOLIC CONGRESS

Pittsburg Prepared For First International Eucharistic Convention.

Preparations for the first International Eucharistic Congress, to be held in Pittsburg, October 15, 16 and 17, are about completed, and from the interest being manifested by the clergy throughout the country it is safe to assert that it will be the most successful meeting ever held by the Priests' Eucharistic League in the United States. More than 500 delegates are expected, among whom will be many of the most distinguished prelates of America and some of the highest dignitaries of the church in Europe. The congress will open in the new St. Paul Cathedral with solemn Pontifical mass at which Bishop Kelley, of Savannah, will preside. Even morning there will be Pontifical mass, celebrated by an Archbishop, at which a Bishop will preach, and in the morning and afternoon of each day a business session of the congress will be held. On the last day there will be a session of the lay people, which the question of Sunday observance will be discussed by able speakers from the ranks of the laity. All priests, whether members of the League or not, are cordially invited to attend the congress, and all will be sure of a hearty welcome from their Pittsburg confreres. The hotels of the city have made special rates for visiting clergymen, and the local committees have made suitable arrangements for the comfort and convenience of all who may attend the congress.

RYAN THE HERO.

Forgets His Injuries and Prevents Second Railroad Horror.

The terrible railroad wreck on the Boston and Maine railroad last Sunday, when twenty-five happy men, women and children went to their death, was not without its hero, an Irish-American named Ryan, who forgot his own injuries and prevented a second holocaust. While the groans of the dying could be heard even above the now feeble pulsing of the engines, the scurrying of the rescuers and the trend of farmers rushing to the scene, one man stood out amid the throng as the hero par excellence. He was Frank Ryan, a brakeman on the express. He had been hurled many feet from the car on which he stood and lay unconscious for a few minutes. He revived, but crawled limply to the scene, where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away, while the messenger he had called ran off, only to find where he saw the dim, fleeting shadows fighting to rip the coach apart and save whomever they might. Calling to one man, as he held up his arm, showing a severed artery, he said in a constantly weakening tone: "The Montreal express, old man, get out! The train is coming down on the wreck. For God's sake, stop it! There no signal man left now on the back of the express!" Ryan fell back, his life seemingly about to ebb away,

KENTUCKY IRISH AMERICAN.

Devoted to the Moral and Social Advancement of all Irish Americans.

KENTUCKY IRISH AMERICAN PRINTING CO., Incorporated, Publishers

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR SINGLE COPY 5c

Entered at the Louisville Postoffice as Second-Class Matter.

Address all Communications to the KENTUCKY IRISH AMERICAN, 335-37 West Green St

LOUISVILLE, KY. SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1907

MADE GOOD.

Thomas Shelley, Charles Greer, Mike Tynan and William Perry are four men who have always made good, and those of them who are in Tuesday's primary should receive every vote cast. Their experience has demonstrated their splendid qualifications for the places to which they aspire, and few men have so splendidly won the confidence of the public as they. Their defeat would prove a great loss to the ticket.

TROUBLE FOR ENGLAND.

In spite of the confident assertions in some of the London newspapers, the situation in India is giving a great deal of anxiety to the British Government and people. The great Indian Empire had been tranquil for so long, except on its northern frontier, that Englishmen had come to believe that there was never going to be any more trouble there. They have been rudely awakened by recent events. Especially disappointing to British statesmen is the knowledge that Japanese influence is in a measure responsible for the present condition of things in India. Perhaps England will be soon visited with the perils that she has practiced upon other nations. Her alliance with the little yellow men was not made from any humanitarian or Christian motive, as time will demonstrate.

ARBITRATION POPULAR.

The satisfactory, and let us hope final, settlement of the differences that have for some time existed between the Louisville Railway Company and the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees is another striking illustration of the fact that arbitration is constantly gaining ground in the minds of the laboring classes as the most satisfactory method of settling differences between employer and employee. The desire for temperate and sane adjustment of dissensions is due to the tremendous strides the workman has made by reading and study. While giving credit to both sides, and also to Mayor Bingham, we would suggest that every man who belongs to a labor union read what Cardinal Gibbons has to say on strikes in another column. No effort should be spared to instill the principles he advocates into the minds of all, which will produce peace and prosperity.

FIERCE STRUGGLE OPENED.

Striking events are now being enacted in Ireland, which leads many to the belief that a good effect likely to accrue from the fierce struggle just opened is that it will probably silence the voice of faction and disorder in the National ranks. In the piping time of peace the Irish with their strong individual nature are prone to dissension and loud voiced bickerings, but in war, with their common enemy in front, and their blood up, their sole attention and whole mind is engrossed with the spirit of the attack. There has been cattle-driving in certain districts of Cork and Tipperary, counties which have not yet come under the Lord Lieutenant's proclamation of being "in a state of revolt," but they are soon likely to be included in that category, but whether or not it may be taken for granted that William O'Brien, member for Cork City, with his three or four colleagues who have been railing for the past two years at the Irish party, will be found in the front of the fight to free the grazing lands for the use of Irish families. It will also furnish an excellent opportunity to the Sinn Fein faction to show the mettle they are made of. The Feiners, as far as possible, refuse to recognize the virtue or existence of British law in Ireland. Here are the cattle drivers, chiefly members of the United Irish League, who refuse not only to recognize it, but deliberately violate it in their campaign for peasant ownership of the land. It is not extravagant to assume that the Sinn Fein leaders, Messrs. Martyn, Griffith and Sweetman, with their colleagues, will be presently found in the forefront of the fight leading the campaign and going to jail to show their attachment to the political faith which they have been proclaiming with much vehemence.

England has become alarmed over her great growth of insanity. The annual report of the lunacy commission, published last week, shows a quieting increase in the population of British asylums. At the beginning of this year one out of every 222 persons in England and Wales was reported insane. Ten years ago the proportion of insane persons was only one in every 314. From 1869 to 1906, the population of England and Wales was increased by 53 1/2 per cent, and the total insane by 133 per cent. The significant fact brought to light by the report is the spread of senile dementia, which alone accounts for over 35 per cent. of last year's fresh lunacy cases.

Naturalized citizens residing abroad were the loudest objectors to the law which went into effect July 1 requiring Americans in foreign countries to register at the nearest consulate or lose their citizenship. The law was not passed to please foreigners who come here long enough to establish citizenship and then return home, where they escape the obligation of their original allegiance, and enjoy the protection of the United States if they get into trouble.

Despite the numerous times the fact has been related in these columns, certain of our Catholic papers persist in the mistake that Bishop McQuaid is now the oldest in the American hierarchy. This honor belongs to our own revered Bishop McCloskey, who is forty-five days older and was consecrated nearly two months before the august head of the Rochester diocese. Will the Citizen take notice?

Sir Thomas Lipton, in the name of the Royal Irish Yacht Club, has again challenged the New York Yacht Club for the America's cup. The Irish contender will be named Shamrock IV., and the race will run next year. This will be Sir Thomas' fourth attempt to lift the cup.

The scenes witnessed on the streets of Paris last Sunday were the result of the loss of religion to France. That unfortunate country will find that unless there is a speedy return to the teachings of the church her troubles will multiply and become endless.

In removing Deputies Tynan and Collins, Bailiff Paul and the Powers at the City Hall had to commend them for their efficiency, which causes people to wonder what exists there is for the change.

From the proficiency which he has shown in profanity, His Honor Mayor Bingham need not worry after he loses his position as the city's chief executive—there is always a demand for good steamboat mates.

Boys brought before the Juvenile Court will not soon forget Judge Lincoln's punishment. The Sheriff will provide resin soap with which they must wash their mouths.

Remember Thomas Shelley and Mike Tynan and vote for them next Tuesday.

LOOK WHO'S HERE.

A little daughter arrived at noon last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Barry, 633 West St. Catherine street. Both mother and child are progressing finely, and Commodore Jack admits it's up to him to say something.

STRICKEN WITH TYPHOID.

Phil Kavanaugh, one of the best known Irishmen in Louisville and Vice President of Division 3, has been stricken with typhoid fever, and on Wednesday evening removed to St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, where it is thought his recovery will be not long delayed.

CONDITION UNCHANGED.

The condition of the Rev. A. M. McFeely, O. P., who has been ill of stomach trouble for several weeks and is now at Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, is reported as without change. Father Francis Brady, who is also there, is in a precarious condition with but small chance for recovery.

LADIES' LAST ETCHERE.

The young ladies of the West End will give the last of their series of charity encores Monday evening at Elsonmenger's Park. Thirty-fourth and Market. On this occasion refreshments will be served and the prizes very handsome. A most enjoyable evening is assured all who attend.

EMIGRATION CONTINUES.

According to a return issued recently, the number of emigrants from Ireland to places out of Europe during July was 3,753, an increase of 895 on the number emigrating in July last year. The total number leaving Ireland during the seven months ending July was 32,588, an increase of 3,104 on the corresponding period of last year. During the seven months 17,843 passengers arrived in Ireland from places out of Europe, as against 13,326 during the same period in 1906.

The minute you are nice to some people they want to borrow money from you.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

United States Senator,

J. C. W. BECKHAM.

Governor,

S. W. HAGER.

Lieutenant Governor,

SOUTH TRIMBLE.

Secretary of State,

HUBERT VRELAND.

Anditor,

HENRY HOSWORTH.

Treasurer,

RUBY LAFFOON.

Attorney General,

JOHN K. HENDRICKS.

Superintendent Public Instruction,

M. O. WINFREY.

Commissioner of Agriculture,

J. W. NEWMAN.

Clerk Court of Appeals,

JOHN CHENAULT.

Railroad Commissioner,

CHARLES C. MCCHORD.

SAVED STATE MONEY.

Democratic Management of Charitable Institutions of Kentucky.

One of the most marked evidences of the vast improvement in the management of the charitable institutions of Kentucky, under Democratic administration, will be shown when the General Assembly meets next January. Since the establishment of these institutions they have come to each session of the General Assembly asking for more money, more appropriations in addition to the regular appropriations allowed them by law. For the first time in their history they will probably appear before the next General Assembly with the statement that none of them wants one cent additional appropriation. They will be able to show to the General Assembly that under the wise and economical administration of the Board of Control they not only want more money, but have been able under their regular allowance to save enough to cover all needed improvement. Such a condition has never happened before, and to those who have been familiar with this matter in former sessions of the General Assembly it will seem strange indeed that the coming General Assembly should be asked for more money. The Board of Control, which has been in existence since 1892, has been able to save enough to cover all needed improvement. Such a condition of affairs at the close of this Democratic administration speaks volumes in commendation of the management of these institutions under these two Democratic Boards. The administration of these institutions under Democratic control with the management under the administration of Gov. Bradley and Taylor. The Democratic party will be able to show that in every respect its management is superior to that of the Republicans. The Democrats undertake to criticize this management, and especially at the Lexington Asylum, the Democrats will be able to show that a far worse condition of affairs existed, especially in that asylum, under Gov. Bradley's administration than has ever existed since. To conduct these large and populous institutions without some mishaps or mismanagements is impossible. For instance, the population of the Lake-Lake Asylum, of inmates and employees, is about 1,600 men and women, together with a large number of children, equal in numbers to a good-sized fifth class city. It is unreasonable to expect year in and year out to run such an institution without some mishap. And yet we present the record of the management of these institutions under Democratic administration, and challenge a comparison of them with the best managed similar institutions of any other State.

FIFTY YEARS.

A notable event of next week in Catholic circles will be the golden jubilee anniversary of the marriage of Francis P. Barron and his estimable wife, which will be observed Tuesday morning with a nuptial mass at St. John's church. In the presence of what will be a numerous gathering of the children, grandchildren and friends of the worthy couple. From 4 to 9 o'clock in the evening there will be a reception at the residence, 937 East Green street, but no presents will be received.

MOVING NICELY.

President Conkling and members of Trinity Council held a fine meeting Monday night, though the business was only of the usual routine character. In the talks that were made it developed that interest in the new club house was growing, and it may be that before spring there will be a general canvass in behalf of the building undertaking. Vic Eckert, the general Financial Secretary, was present after a two months' business trip and was accorded a most hearty reception.

ATTACKED THE CARDINAL.

Cardinal Gibbons was attacked Wednesday on the street in Baltimore by a ruffian, and it was with difficulty that the police took the man from the infuriated citizens who came to the Cardinal's rescue. The venerable churchman was out for his afternoon walk and was approached by a man who solicited alms. Recognizing him as an habitual beggar, the prelate refused him with the above stated results.

SOCIETY.

Miss Alta And was last week the guest of Mrs. James McKenna at Bardstown.

Miss Anna Kehoe has returned to her home after spending two weeks with friends at Georgetown.

Misses Katie O'Sullivan and Ethel Deiss arrived here last week and have entered the Sacred Heart Academy.

Miss Virginia Higgins, of Jeffersonville, is spending the week in Chicago, the guest of Mrs. D. S. Hicks.

Miss Mollie Collins has returned from a trip abroad, having visited most of the principal cities of Europe.

Miss Pearl Gorman, of Mt. Carmel, Ill., has been the charming guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Gorman in South Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burke, who were the guests of Mrs. Rose Gay in Portland, have returned to their home at Lexington.

Miss Lulu McCrory arrived home the first of the week from an extended visit to New York and Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lavelle were among the number from this city spending the past week at West Baden Springs.

Niek Warisse, the well known West End barking company promoter, has just returned from a partly business and pleasure trip to Chicago.

Miss Etzel Hannan has returned from a trip abroad, having been to Paris, London, Berlin and other large cities on the continent.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Garrigan have returned from their honeymoon trip and are now at home to their friends at 1708 Magazine street.

Mrs. Delia Morris and daughter, Emma Morris, have been having a most enjoyable visit here as the guests of Mrs. Maryweeney in Portland.

William McDermott, of Madison, Ind., was here to attend the State Fair and spend a week at the guest of his cousin, Thomas Keenan, Jr.

Mrs. John J. Seiberz left Sunday night to attend the Jamestown Exposition, having been a winner of that trip in the Louisville Herald contest.

Edward Monahan and bride, who have been spending their honeymoon in the East, are expected to arrive today at their home in the Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McCloskey, of 2313 Brook street, expect to soon leave with their son, Mr. J. L. McCloskey, and wife, of New York City.

Mrs. William M. Higgins and Miss Hattie Higgins arrived home Wednesday night from New York, where they spent three weeks visiting relatives.

Bernard Patrick Harris, an old Louisville boy, now engaged in a prosperous business in Indianapolis, is here visiting friends of his boyhood days.

Mrs. Lavinia O'Brien and Will O'Brien, of Frankfort, have been spending the week here as guests of Paul O'Brien and Fred Kellaer and visiting the State Fair.

Edward Sullivan and wife and daughter, Miss Cordelia, have returned to their home in South Louisville, after a most pleasant visit with relatives at Glasgow Junction.

William Patterson, who has been ill at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital for the past three weeks, is convalescing rapidly and will be able to return home in a day or two.

George Fisher and bride, who are Miss Emma Heilmann, who are spending the week here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McCloskey, and be at home to their friends at 2313 Portland avenue.

Louisville people registered in New York last week were Miss Etzel Hannan and Messrs. W. V. Mallon, P. Gray, W. C. Chestnut street, and William and Nic Bosler and their wives.

Mrs. James W. Flynn, who has been spending a delightful week here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gray, West Chestnut street, will leave today for her home at Palmyra.

Miss Maggie Burke, formerly of this city but now residing at Kokomo, Ind., who has been visiting Mrs. Mary Burke and Maria Conroy in Jeffersonville, left for her home Tuesday.

Miss Mary A. Molland, of 1322 Rogers street, has gone to Covington to spend a ten days' vacation with her aunt. She will also visit her brother, who holds a fine position in Cincinnati.

Mrs. William Able and Miss Sallie Hagan, of Lebanon, have been visiting here during the past week and attending the State Fair as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Graves, 944 Fifth street.

That faithful old bird, the stork, stopped long enough in his rounds last Sunday to deposit a handsome little baby boy at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Dugan, Seventh and Zane streets.

All of the Kentucky Title Company clerks were smoking cigars Tuesday morning, all on account of Richard Langan, one of their number, having become the father of a baby boy the night previous.

Miss Mary Seannell, who has been visiting in Washington, Marion and Nelson counties, has returned home in company with her aunt, Miss Medley, who will spend a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Seannell, of 725 West Oak street.

Augustus G. Weber is celebrating the arrival of a fine boy at his home, 415 Twenty-sixth street. There will be a big gathering of relatives and friends when the christening takes place and the little fellow is given the name of his worthy father.

Mrs. Thomas D. Cline, who has been under the care of Dr. A. R. Bilot, suffering from a dislocated arm sustained last week, is making nice progress toward recovery, though it will be some time yet before she can use the injured member.

James P. Barry, always prominent in local Hibernian and Catholic society circles, left Monday with his wife and Messrs. Thomas and James Barry to spend two weeks with relatives at Lynn, Mass. They will visit Boston, New York and other large cities before returning home.

While we solicit our readers to send us items of interest, notably of weddings, reunions, card parties and notes of social affairs, they should reach the society editor not later than Thursday morning. And don't forget that all should be signed by the writer, not for publication, but for authenticity.

Mike Burke, the former member of the Legislature from this city, and now connected with the Index's office, has returned from a trip to St. Louis and the West. Mike was for some years connected with the Western railroads and while there met a number of his old time acquaintances and fellow workmen.

Miss Irene Binford's many friends will be rejoiced to learn that she is expected to be able to return home next week with her brother. Miss Binford left here last month to visit the Jamestown Exposition, Washington, Richmond and Lynchburg, and while with relatives at the last named place suffered a severe attack of typhoid fever, which has since confined her to her bed.

One of the most enjoyable of the recent society events was the watermelon party given in honor of Miss Josephine Byrne by her grandmother, Mrs. K. Hetherington, 225 East Jacob street, when exquisite favors were awarded and prizes were won by Misses Louise Cassilly and Edda Reutlinger. The guests were Misses Emma Deragon, Fannie Weaver, Virginia Babbitt, Maude O'Brien, Louise Cassilly, Mary Winn, Louise Curran, Florence Leahy, Edda Reutlinger and Virginia Byrne. Mrs. Hetherington proved a charming hostess and all present were delighted with her hospitality.

The engagement is announced of Miss Evelyn Goffinet and John J. Grogan, the marriage to take place this coming fall. Miss Goffinet is a pretty and popular young lady and especially a big favorite in the West End. Mr. Grogan is connected with the J. M. Robinson Norton Company and has long been a fixture in Catholic society, being an active worker in Mackin Council. Rumors concerning Mr. Grogan have been circulated often, but this is the first official announcement that this jolly bachelor has relinquished his wooing. The Kentucky Irish American, as spokesman for their many friends, wish the happy couple a life of prosperity and happiness.

A large and expectant throng will gather at St. Louis, Bertrand's church on Wednesday, October 30, to witness the marriage of Miss Cecilia Meagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Meagher, who moved here several years ago from Frankfort, and Dr. F. P. Hiche, of Richmond, Ind. Miss Meagher is one of the most popular girls of the younger set, and as she is a graduate of Nazareth Academy, near Bardstown, that has patrons from all over the United States, this announcement will be received with much interest by a wide circle of friends and admirers throughout the State and country. Dr. Buehe is one of the leading physicians of Richmond and prominent in the affairs of that city.

URICH-WEBER.

Miss Clara Ulrich and Edward C. Weber will be united in marriage Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at St. Charles Borromeo's church. Rev. Father Raffo officiating at the ceremony. This announcement will prove of interest to their many friends, especially in the West End, who will no doubt through the church on that occasion, though no invitations have been issued. The bride-to-be is the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. L. Ulrich of 228 Duncan street, while the prospective groom is associated with his father in business at Twentieth and St. Cecilia streets and is prominently identified with Mackin Council. After a ten days' trip East they will be at home to their friends in their new residence, 274 Alford street, which has just been completed.

HINTS ON STYLE.

Some predict that silk petticoats soon will be out of date. Veils are worn long and loose now. Thick chenille spots are fashionable. In buttons the fashion ideas tend considerably to the large sizes and odd shapes. Leather bags should be carried only in the morning and with tailor made dresses. Hats are large and made in endless varieties, from those worth dollars to those worth a few cents. Large and beautiful jeweled buttons or cabochons will be used on fur garments, and also on velvet coats. Braids will be used more than ever if that be possible, in trimming all sorts of costumes for morning and afternoon. Plain effects will be most in vogue this season, and in all stripes, or plaids are worn they will be dressed in a herringbone weave. It is predicted that the flit lace will be the most worn of any during the coming season, not only by itself but in combination with other laces. The real Irish crochet will be much used for trimming evening coats. For this purpose it has for years been fashionable, Cluny and Chantilly will be much employed, especially the Cluny. The Chantilly will be used in narrow bands on gowns. Some fellows are not satisfied to kill time unless it belongs to some one else.

INDEPENDENT ANTI-TRUST

SOWDERS & CO..

INCORPORATED

Fish, Oysters, Poultry and Game.

JAMES SOWDERS, Mgr.

Cumb. Phone Main 190

Home Phone 4950

125 W. JEFFERSON

Try Levy's Special Shoes

This Season.

The world's best values in Footwear.

MEN'S—$3.50.

WOMEN'S—$2.50.

BOYS'—$2.00.

GIRLS'—$2.00.

LEVY'S THIRD & MARKET.

HOPKINS The Ideal Family Theater

CONTINUOUS SHOW

From 1:30 to 10:30 p. m.

15-HIGH-CLASS VAUDEVILLE ACTS-15

10-20-30c. No Higher.

MACAULEY'S.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evening and Wednesday matinee.

"The Man From Home."

Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening and Saturday matinee.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

PHOENIX HILL PARK.

Open For the Season.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SECURE DATES FOR

Picnics, Socials, Outings.

This beautiful park has been greatly improved this season and is furnished with new equipments throughout. Parties or Societies should consult the management of Phoenix Hill before closing contracts.

1907 NOVEMBER ELECTION 1907

MIKE TYNAN

CANDIDATE FOR

Bailiff Police Court

SUBJECT TO ACTION OF DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY, SEPT. 24, 1907.

1907 NOVEMBER ELECTION 1907

JAS. P. REEDY

CANDIDATE FOR

Judge Police Court

1907 NOVEMBER ELECTION 1907

Chas. D. Greer

CANDIDATE FOR

Clerk Police Court

1907 NOVEMBER ELECTION 1907

WM. A. PERRY

CANDIDATE FOR

Representative

49TH LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT, Composed of 8th and 9th Wards.

THELMA CLUB'S SEASON.

Invitation has been issued to the first of the series of select dances to be given this season by the popular Thelma Club, which takes place next Thursday night at Nadorff's Hall, Eighteenth and Kentucky. A union orchestra will render up-to-date

ORDER YOUR COAL

—FROM—

Dougherty & Lanning

Seventh and Magnolia

Before there is another advance. Best creened Pittsburgh coal. This is the time to lay in your winter supply.

PHONE 1783.

Furniture

Of all kinds, at the lowest prices,

Go to

WM. F. MAYER,

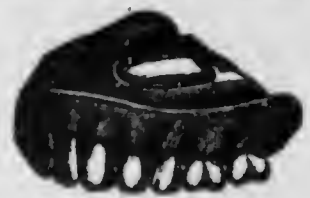

419 W. MARKET STREET.

OFFICE HOURS 9 TO 6 SUNDAYS 9 TO 12

DONT YOU WANT

Good Dental work done for the least money.

Our Dentistry Will Please You.

We are responsible and do just as we advertise. All work guaranteed.

DR. H. J. COUCHMAN, Dentist.

OFFICE 542 FIFTH STREET.

Cumb. Phone M389. Home Phone 2144

UNION ICE CREAM CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF

PURE ICE CREAM AND SHERBET.

We have our own dairy and ice plant and we separate our own cream. This enables us to put a better cream on the market at a lower price than our competitors.

627-633 EIGHTH ST.

Office Hours 9 to 4. Home Phone 6127.

DR. J. FRANK SULLIVAN

DENTIST

739 FOURTH AVENUE

Photos Made At Night By Engagement.

WYBRANT BROS.

Photographers

BE SURE TO CALL FOR McKENNA
WHISKY.
IT IS ALWAYS PURE.
H. McKenna, Distiller, Fairfield, Ky.

M. J. BANNON, Pres. & Mgr. P. BANNON, JR., Vice-Pres. H. M. WOLTRING, Secretary. R. B. BANNON, Treasurer.
P. Bannon Sewer Pipe Co.
Salt Glazed Sewer and Culvert Pipe, Bannons Patent Lidded Pipe for Steam Conduits, Wall Coping, Drain Tile, Vitrified Street Paving Brick, Fire Proofing Pipe, Fire Lining, Fire Brick, Grate and Boiler Tile, Ground Fire Clay, Chimney Tops, Lawn Vases, Vitrified Sidewalk Brick.
OFFICE, 508-512 W. JEFFERSON, TELEPHONE 2633.
WORKS—13th and Lexington and Magnolia Ave., Bet. 9th and 10th. TELEPHONE 2633.

Gran W. Smith's Son,
AL SMITH, Proprietor.
Funeral Director and Embalmer
Carriages Furnished for All Occasions on Short Notice.
809 W. JEFFERSON STREET.
TELEPHONE 810.

D. J. DOUGHERTY S. J. McELLIOTT
DOUGHERTY & McELLIOTT,
Funeral Directors and Embalmers.
Both Phones 2998 CARRIAGES FURNISHED FOR ALL OCCASIONS
All Calls Answered Promptly, Day or Night.
1231 WEST MARKET STREET.

HOME PHONE 88 CUMBERLAND 123
J. J. BARRETT'S SONS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
AND EMBALMERS.
838 East Main Street.

J. E. TRACY L. H. STRAUB
BOTH PHONES 363.
TRACY & STRAUB
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
...AND EMBALMERS..
Carriages Furnished on Short Notice.
1531 W. MARKET STREET.

THOMAS KEENAN,
Funeral Director and Embalmer
TELEPHONE 365.
All calls promptly attended to, day or night.
Carriages furnished for all occasions.
1225 W. MARKET ST.

PRIVATE HOSPITAL
FOR THE CARE OF INSANE AND EPILEPTIC PATIENTS.
The Sisters of Mercy, of Jeffersonville, Ind., own and manage a private hospital for the care and treatment of insane and epileptic patients. Both male and female patients are admitted. Rates very reasonable. For further particulars apply to
MOTHER MARY REGIN,
NURSE, MERCY HOSPITAL,
Sperks Avenue, Jeffersonville, Ind.
Give your boys an education that will prepare them for life.

ST. XAVIER'S COLLEGE
112 W. Broadway, Louisville, Ky.
Conducted by the Xaverian Brothers. Classical, Scientific and Business Courses. Preparatory Department. Large Swimming Pool. Well Equipped Gymnasium. Terms Moderate. Bro. James, Dir.

PETER M. ANDRIOT & SONS

WAGON MANUFACTURERS
Carriage Repairing and Rubber Tires.
205 AND 207 WEST GREEN STREET.

MANHATTAN
RESTAURANT
AND LUNCH COUNTER.
OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.
504 W. JEFFERSON ST.
OTTO E. YENT, Proprietor.

Old and Rare Whiskies a Specialty.
BLUEGRASS EXCHANGE
LOUIS WABNITZ & CO.,
Proprietors.
339 FIFTH STREET.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

The membership of the auxiliary in Michigan has passed the 3,000 mark. Division 2 heard flattering reports of their picnic receipts at last night's meeting.

Division 4 will meet Monday night and Division 1 on Friday night of the coming week.

More applications and a large attendance enthused the last meeting of Division 9 of St. Paul.

Division 7 of Trenton has organized a vaudeville company for every night during its fair and bazaar next month.

Division 2 of Birmingham started its winter campaign by conferring the degrees at the last regular meeting.

The Hibernians of Waltham, Water-town and Newton, Mass., have started their annual card tournament.

Further Ferdinand has acknowledged the generous contribution of Division 19 of Waltham, Mass., to his mission at Dallas, Texas.

Ladies' Auxiliary 1 of St. Paul had an enthusiastic meeting last week, all interested in the nomination of a Queen for the Hibernian carnival.

Minneapolis Hibernians are proud of their ball team, which has made a creditable record for its first year and won a vast majority of the games played.

The young ladies of Auxiliary 4 of St. Paul gave a grand ball Monday night, the entire proceeds being donated for the remodeling of St. Michael's church.

About 2,000 people attended the lawn fête of Division 18 of Salem, Mass., and it is estimated the receipts will net $500, which will be assigned to the building fund.

Ladies' Auxiliary 2 of St. Paul conferred the four degrees on a large class last week, and afterward entertained with a musical and literary programme and refreshments.

Officers and members of Division 7 of Syracuse are engaged in an effort to corral every eligible man between the ages of eighteen and forty-five in St. Patrick's parish. The byword is now 500 members before January 1, 1908.

Denver Hibernians turned out in full force in the procession and made an excellent showing at the laying of the cornerstone of the new St. Patrick's church, the erection of which has been the long cherished plan of Rev. Father Carrigan.

The Irish fair of the Ladies' Auxiliary was a decided success and Mrs. Dan Dougherty and her committee won much praise. Every bit of available space was occupied and all had more enjoyment than had been looked for. The women should continue these affairs.

Members of Division 1 will be called upon next Friday night to determine the future of that body. There is a handsome sum in the treasury, and unless there is a manifestation of more interest this may be divided among the attendants and the other property turned over to the County Board. It is urged that every true Hibernian attend this meeting and save the division.

Just before leaving Bellows Falls, N. H., for their new home in New York members of the division auxiliary gathered in an interesting social session for the presentation of a suitable testimonial to John J. O'Connor and his wife. For the division President Diggins presented the former with a beautiful writing desk, bookcase, combined, and a gentleman's chair to rest in after his daily toil was over. Mrs. Fleming as County President complimented Mrs. O'Connor on her great services to the auxiliary, and on their behalf presented her with a complete set of silver knives, forks and spoons.

GRIEVED TO DEATH.

Frank Feeney, a well known Louisville street railway conductor, died Friday morning at his home, 1609 Cedar street, of a complication of diseases that was aggravated by the death of two of his children and a child of his sister since August 26. His funeral took place Sunday morning from St. Charles' church. Rev. Father Raffo conducting the solemn services.

OPPOSITE CATHEDRAL.

Dr. H. J. Couchman has moved his dental office from the Bacon building to 542 Fifth street, just opposite the Cathedral. On account of increasing business the doctor was forced to secure larger and more commodious quarters, and can also be found there in urgent cases, as that address will be his permanent residence.

JOLLY THREE.

Dan Schreiber, Jos. Heckmann and Al Zachary have just returned from an extended trip throughout the East, having been away for a month. Mr. Schreiber states that they had the time of their life and felt that they didn't care if they never came home.

APPETIZING DISHES.

J. J. Schreiber has opened a Mexican chile parlor at the northwest corner of Two and sixth streets, where he is prepared to serve appetizing Mexican dishes under the personal direction of A. J. Cortes, lately of Mexico.

HOW HE WON.

"The man I marry," said the girl in the parlor scene, "must be a little lower than the angels."
"Well, what's the matter with me?" queried the young man, as he dropped on his knees at her feet. "You see, I'm a little lower than one of them."

WILL RUN EASY.

When your sewing machine begins to run hard, it is because the oil on it has become hardened. Oil every part thoroughly with kerosene oil, and let stand for a couple of hours. Then with a soft cloth wipe every

SOCIETY DIRECTORY.

A. O. H.

DIVISION 1.
Meets on the Second and Fourth Friday Evenings of Each Month.
President—Thomas D. Clines.
Vice President—James J. Kilkelly.
Recording Secretary—Thomas Keenan, Jr.
Financial Secretary—P. J. Cusick.
Counsellor—
Treasurer—Charles J. Finegan.
Sergeant-at-arms—James Doran.

DIVISION 2.
Meets on the First and Third Friday Evenings of Each Month.
President—C. J. Foran.
Vice President—Dan McKenna.
Treasurer—Owen Keiran.
Recording Secretary—Joseph T. Lynch.
Financial Secretary—John T. Keane.

DIVISION 3.
Meets on the First and Third Thursday evenings of Each Month, North-east corner of Seventeenth and Main.
President—James Coleman.
Vice President—Phil Cavanaugh.
Recording Secretary—John Morris.
Financial Secretary—John Hession.
1714 Baird street.
Treasurer—Daniel J. Dougherty.
Sergeant-at-arms—Thomas Noon.

DIVISION 4.
Meets second and fourth Mondays, Odd Fellows Hall, Sixth and Walnut.
President—Joseph P. McGinn.
Vice President—Stephen J. McElliot.
Recording Secretary—Frank P. Burke.
Financial Secretary—W. J. Connelly, 1700 Seventh street.
Treasurer—Joseph L. Lenihan.
Sergeant-at-arms—Robert Mitchell.
Sentinel—William Ansbro.

DIVISION 1, JEFFERSONVILLE.
Meets on the First and Third Tuesday at Plau's Hall.
County President—Louis Constantine.
President—John Kennedy.
Vice President—B. Coyle.
Recording Secretary—T. O'Hern.
Financial Secretary—J. E. Murphy.
Treasurer—Michael Kinney.
Marshal—M. Garrity.
Banner Bearer—J. G. Cole.

Y. M. I.

MACKIN COUNCIL, 205.
Meets Tuesday Evenings at Club House, 530 Twenty-sixth Street.
President—Ben J. Land.
First Vice President—John T. Kenney.
Second Vice President—Frank Lashan.
Recording Secretary—Den Reed.
Financial Secretary—Frank G. Adams, 2141 Rowan street.
Corresponding Secretary—Joseph J. Hancock.
Treasurer—Daniel W. Weber.
Marshal—John Humphrey.
Inside Sentinel—Adolphus Andriot.
Outside Sentinel—George Bartsch.

part, carefully removing every trace of oil and dirt. Then oil thoroughly with good machine oil, and you will think you are running a new machine. Never buy any but the best oil, as poor oil ruins a machine.

DOMINICANS.

Marvelous Growth of Religious Order Since Founder's Death.

In the last number of the Irish Rosary the Rev. Father Rouselle, O. P., concludes an article on St. Dominic and his order with the following, which we believe will be of more than ordinary interest to many of our readers:

"When we remember that from the first confirmation of the order in December, 1216, till the holy founder's death in August, 1221, is a period of scarcely five years, we can not doubt that the whole of his work was under the special protection and guidance of Divine Providence. In truth, that an order such as that of the Friars Preachers should have been founded, propagated and extended to all the countries in Europe in little more than four years—nay, should have been legislated for so admirably that nothing has been added to nor taken from the founder's idea during seven centuries of existence, and that his other institutions, namely the Cloistered Sisterhood and the Third Order, should have existed through all these centuries—extended indeed over a larger area—but yet practically unchanged, and the same in substance as when he left them, is a clear proof that the founder of such institutions was a heavenly-sent messenger of peace to men, a man head and shoulders above his fellows, with great qualities of mind and spiritual graces that enabled him to bring the work to perfection within so short a space of time. If all the founders of religious orders are said to live again in the history of the institutes they have established, particularly in this the case with St. Dominic, who promised, with his dying breath, that he would still help his children, and indeed be more useful to them where he was going than he had ever been on earth."

LABOR UNION HOMES.

Many unions are coming to recognize the necessity for homes for their aged and disabled members like that of the printers at Colorado Springs, and are taking steps to raise funds for such purpose. Colorado, California and Texas seem to be the most popular locations on account of climatic conditions.

MENDING GLOVES.

Mending the finger tips of long gloves with court plaster is the trick one young woman makes use of to lengthen the life of this dress accessory which is such a luxury. She pastes the court plaster, white on white and black on black, on the inside of the finger tip, with the result that the gloves will last immeasurably longer.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

John McKean, M. P., left Ireland for the continent the first week of this month, to be gone till the middle of October.

The wet season has told greatly against the drying of turf in County Leitrim, and it is feared there will be great scarcity.

James McCourt, J. M. Johnson, H. M. Williamson, P. Matthews and H. Backhouse were re-elected to the Dundalk Harbor Commission.

William Hearty, who lived a few miles from Rathfriland at a place called Maybogue, was stricken with apoplexy and died within a few hours.

The South Armagh Executive of the United Irish League has arranged for a great home rule meeting at Camlough on the second Sunday in October.

A verdict of accidental death was returned at the inquest held on the body of the girl named Daly who was found drowned in the Grand canal at Limerick.

Jeremiah Connor, of Innisfree, was removed to Kenmare Workhouse Hospital in a critical condition, the result of a fall from his horse while riding home from a funeral.

Much regret is felt there at the transfer of Constable Walsh from Ballytrain to Belfast. As a policeman he discharged his duties so as to win the esteem of all classes and creeds.

Lady Aberdeen has sent a present of a perambulator to Mrs. William Cooke, of Lurgan, the mother of triplets, two boys and a girl, born last month, all healthy and sturdy children.

William Deenihan, of Beale East, in the district of Ballybunion, was brought up in custody at Listowel, charged with firing at Timothy Creed with intent to kill, and was removed to the Ballybunion petty sessions.

A farmer named Joe Cannon, of Garbally, near Banagher, was found dead in a lonesome moor, where two faithful dogs had kept vigil over his body for twenty-four hours. His death resulted from heart disease.

His Eminence Cardinal Logue will preside and Rev. Thomas Cassidy, of Monasterboice, will preach the sermon on the occasion of the translation of the relic of St. Brigid at St. Brigid's church at Faghart on October 20.

Prominent men of the town have arranged for the building of a new Catholic hall for Mohill. This is the most prosperous town in the county, and the hall will be useful and beneficial to the inhabitants for many purposes.

With sincere regret was recorded the death of John Lewis Neary, who during the Land League days was one of the most prominent figures in County Louth politics. For a number of years he has lived quietly near Droghda.

Peter Stallard, who was sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment at the Kilkenny March assizes in connection with the Fleming-Ryan romantic affair at Archersfield, has been released, the sentence being commuted nearly five months.

Mrs. Sullivan, nee Dalton, who died on Sunday in the village of Athea, County Limerick, had attained the great age of 101 years. During her long life, spent in the parish in which she died, she enjoyed splendid health, and up to last April had all along been able to attend mass every week.

A massive cross of Irish limestone has been erected over the grave of the late Most Rev. Dr. McGennis, Bishop of Kilmore, in the grounds of the Cathedral at Cavan. It is of Celtic pattern, of classic design, and the arms are ornamented with interlaced scrolls. The shaft is over sixteen feet high.

A melancholy drowning fatality occurred in the townland of Carriek-duff, convenient to Keady. It appears a child named Francis McGorry, aged about two and a half years, had been playing about the house, and after some time its parents were horrified to find the little one lying in a well, the water of which was about twenty inches deep.

KISSING THE GIRLS.

Senator Vance once stumped North Carolina in joint debate with Judge Settle, the Republican candidate for the Governorship. All the white Democrats turned out to hear Vance, and the colored Republicans to hear Settle. At the conclusion of the speaking one day Vance was told that a number of young women had expressed a desire to kiss the Democratic candidate. He stepped down from the platform and kissed a dozen or so pretty young women, when he stopped long enough to turn around to his competitor and shout, "I'm kissing my girls, Settle; now you kiss yours."

CHILD'S POCKET MONEY.

As soon as a child is old enough to ask for a penny to spend for itself a small weekly allowance should be given and the child taught to save a portion of it for presents, etc. No matter how few the pennies a child should know just how many to expect during the week and on what day. This will teach the value of money—a valuable lesson—and it will also teach the little one how to be generous and self denying by carefully saving up some of those same cherished pennies for a present for some one else.

MODISH PERFUMES.

The woman who aspires to smartness takes care to be au fait in the matter of perfumes. Each year sees several new accents in vogue, though a certain few of the old fashioned essences retain their popularity. Of these lavender and wood violet denote the refined, well bred woman. The accents of the present season are remarkable for their subtle yet penetrating odor. Violette roses are again considered modish.

A man never realizes how little he

FRANK FEHR BREWING CO.

INCORPORATED

Brewers and Bottlers
LOUISVILLE, KY.

Cumb. Phone Main 1913 Home Phone 1913

WIEDEMANN
BREWING COMPANY'S
Celebrated Draught and Bottled Beers.
Sold at all leading bars and cafes. Renowned for purity, strength and excellent flavor.
Gruber & Deuser, Managers, Louisville, Ky.

DRINK

Hofbrau and Pilsener Beer
BREWED BY
SENN & ACKERMAN
BREWING COMPANY.
INCORPORATED
LOUISVILLE, KY.

PABST BEER
ALWAYS PURE.

Brewed from carefully selected barley and hops—never permitted to leave the brewery until properly aged.
TELEPHONE 1889.

Louisville Branch—Fourteenth and Jefferson Sts.

ASK FOR
FALLS CITY BEER
ON SALE EVERYWHERE
HOME PHONE 7569 CUMB. PHONE WEST 69

WALTERS'
Clay-Street Brewery,
812 and 814 CLAY STREET.
Telephone 209. LOUISVILLE, KY.

ASK FOR DIERSEN'S
FINE DARK BEER.
Telephone 1137.
ONE OF THE FINEST BEERS MADE

JOHN F. OERTEL CO.
INCORPORATED.
BUTCHERTOWN BREWERY.
CELEBRATED CREAM BEER.
1400 to 1408 Story Avenue.
BOTH PHONES 891. LOUISVILLE, KY.

HENRY HUNOLD
DEALER IN
Staple and Fancy Groceries
A FIRST-CLASS SAMPLE ROOM
IN CONNECTION.
Old Whiskies a Specialty.
Home Phone 4330. 540 W. WALNUT.

HERRMANN BROS
IMPORTERS
FINE WINES AND LIQUOR
Distillers and Wholesale Dealers in Finest Brands of Kentucky Whiskies especially
PEARL OF NELSON
BOTTLED IN BOND
Telephone 1948. 234 Sixth Street knows about women till he marries one.

Don't hesitate to use the better in the long run.
DIAMOND WALL PLASTER
MANUFACTURED BY
Kentucky Wall Plaster Co.
(INCORPORATED)
BOTH PHONES
Brook and River, - Louisville.
Also operating the Hoosier Lumber Plant, Jeffersonville, Ind.
WINE. LIQUORS.
VAL SALON
VAL LESTER, Proprietor.
Hot Lunch every morning to 12:30 o'clock.
142 W. GREEN ST.

THE BIG STORE

Are Now Showing Their New FALL LINE

SOFT HATS and DERBIES

EVERY SHAPE. EVERY SHADE.

98c, $1.48, $1.98, $2.48, $3 and $4

THE BIG STORE, 424 West Market St. Between Fourth and Fifth, MILTON M MARBLESTONE & CO.

THE FARRAND-CECILIAN

IS A PIANO ANY ONE CAN PLAY.

You will not have to spend hours of practicing if you invest in a FARRAND-CECILIAN Piano.

It is a high-grade PIANO, with the wonderful Cecilian mechanism contained in it, making a combination par excellence.

Each and every member of the family can have just the class of music ne or she desires. Can you imagine a more satisfying instrument in the home?

Haven't you wished many times that you would like to have music in the home? You can have it at all times if you place a FARRAND-CECILIAN there.

If you have an old Piano, we will take same as part payment on a Farrand Cecilian—the balance you can pay in monthly installments.

MONTENEGRO-RIEHM MUSIC CO.

Incorporated.

628-630 FOURTH AVENUE.

BLUE RIBBONS

will go to the best exhibits in all classes. Mulloy's Coffees and Teas are prize winners the year round. Never varying in quality—the prices always lowest.

At 3 lbs. for 50 cents

We offer a special grade coffee, unexcelled in quality—a big favorite everywhere.

TEA SPECIAL for iced tea; black, green or mixed 45c per lb.

MULLOY, COFFEE ROASTER.

914 W. MARKET STREET.

FREE! FREE! FREE!

BEGINNING SEPT. 2

—A—

EurekaFlyer

as long as they last will be given in each sack of

EDINGER'S EUREKA FLOUR

None Better Made

Except 10-cent, 15 cent and 6 lb. sacks

In addition to the premium tickets, which are redeemable for valuable articles at our office. Get a flyer for the children.

The Chas. A. Rogers Book Co.

PRAYER BOOKS AND ROSARIES TO SUIT EVERY TASTE

Give us a call and inspect our line of goods. They are the finest of their kind in the city.

BOOKS, MAGAZINES AND RELIGIOUS ARTICLES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

434 W. Jefferson Street.

"QUICK MEAL" GAS RANGES

For many years the "Quick Meal" has been universally acknowledged as the best gas range in the market. They cook quickly, bake excellently and on account of their put out air burners consume less gas than any other. They are more easily cleaned and are made to last. The new improvements this year will keep it in the front rank. Having made our 1907 contract before the advance in prices of all iron goods we are able to sell at old prices.

GEHER & SON, 217 MARKET STREET, NEAR SECOND.

LARGEST AND BEST IN THE CITY.

UNITED LAUNDRY CO.

Incorporated.

WORK A SPECIALTY. GOODS CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED.

BOTH PHONES 1188-493-732.

SPARD, President.

MAIN OFFICE, 504 SIXTH STREET, NEAR GREEN.

T. Schranz & Co., REAL ESTATE

IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.

MONEY TO LOAN.

MAIN 27-y

Room 1, Law Bldg., Center and Green.

322 to 328 West Market Street.

J. BACON & SONS

ESTABLISHED IN 1844. MARKET STREET BET. THIRD AND FOURTH. INCORPORATED.

322 to 328 West Market Street.

Three Great Skirt Values

We have held many skirt sales before—all of which proved to be of special benefit to our customers. This sale will establish for us a new precedent, for the values are decidedly the best we have ever offered. So great are they that we feel a word of explanation is due. A New York manufacturer, to keep his skirt hands busy during the dull season, July and August, made up these skirts in quantity. His production, however, was greater than his outlet, owing to the tightened money conditions. We relieved him of his predicament in part by taking off his hands several hundred of these skirts. The inducement to us was about half price. These skirts are now on sale at the same remarkable price concessions.

The lot consists of Panama, Mohair, Serge and Cheviot Skirts, in black, navy and brown; skirts in fancy mixtures, checks and stripes, in all the latest full-plated styles; some trimmed with tailor straps, others with the bias folds and bands of taffeta silk; skirts that were made to sell at $3.50, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00 each; the entire purchase divided for quick selling into three great bargain lots as follows:

The $3.50 and $4 Skirts for $1.98

The $4.50 and $5 Skirts for $2.98

The $6. and $7 Skirts for $3.98

CENTRAL COMMITTEE

Letters From Supreme Officers Urging Election of Gen. Reichert.

The regular monthly meeting of the Central Committee, C. K. of A., was held Friday night of last week at St. Mary's Hall, with President Joe McGinn occupying the chair and the branches fairly represented. There was no business out of the usual routine, but all were pleased and accepted the invitation to visit St. Cecilia's branch on Thursday evening. Partial but satisfactory reports and returns were made for the recent celebration, which the committee hope to complete for the next meeting. During the evening an interesting discussion upon matters that interest the committee was participated in by Messrs. Harry Vocenann, Charles Falk, Capt. Gus Kane, Oscar Maier and others, and good results are predicted to follow from their suggestions.

All the delegates, especially those interested in the Uniform Rank, were enthusiastic when it was made known that letters had been received here from Supreme President Gaudin, of New Orleans, and Supreme Vice President Croghan, of Providence, urging the election and promotion of Adlt. Gen. Michael Reichert to be Major General and head of the entire military department. The sentiment for Gen. Reichert is unanimous, and but for the illness of Gen. Kadeski the election would have taken place last month. The committee will meet again on October 11, when the delegates will hear some good arguments.

UNFOUNDED

Were Alarmist Reports Circulated About Pope's Health.

Special cablegrams received this week bring the welcome news that the alarmist reports about the Pope's health, which are in circulation both in Italy and abroad, are altogether false. This summer the Pope has enjoyed unusually good health, as the weather has been, for Rome, very cool, and the thick walls of the apostolic palace have kept out all extraordinary visitations of heat. His holiness has given few audiences, and as a rule his gout has troubled him very little. If nothing unforeseen occurs he will begin his autumn work with renewed strength and spirit.

AWFUL DEATH.

William O'Connell, a Big Four switchman, aged thirty-two years, was found frightfully mangled and in a dying condition early Saturday morning in the yards at Preston street and the railroad crossing. The unfortunate man was throwing a switch and failed to notice an approaching car that ran over him. When discovered an hour afterward it was found that his left leg and right arm had been cut off and the other leg and arm badly crushed. He was at once removed to a hospital but only lived a few hours. O'Connell had been in the employ of the Big Four a year and lived in Jeffersonville, where he leaves a wife and several children. His funeral took place from St. Augustine's church Monday morning.

WILL LOCATE HERE.

Dr. John J. Connolly, who graduated two years ago from the Louisville University with marked honors and has since been connected with Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, has been prevailed upon to locate here and not return to Newport, his former home. During his brief residence in Louisville Dr. Connolly has made a legion of friends who will approve his decision and be glad to know that he has opened his office at 2917 Fourth avenue. South Louisville will give him a wide field and it will not be long until he enjoys a big practice.

DR. CHAWK'S MOVE.

Dr. John T. Chawk has removed his veterinary and horse shoeing establishment from Tenth and Broadway to 913-915 Seventh street, just south of the corner of Seventh and Broadway, and in connection with the horse shoeing forge already located there he is building a handsome office and veterinary hospital.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For Governor, AUGUSTUS E. WILSON, of Louisville.
For Lieutenant Governor, WILLIAM H. COX, of Maysville.
For Attorney General, JAMES BREATHITT, of Hopkinsville.
For Auditor, FRANK P. JAMES, of Harrodsburg.
For Treasurer, CAPTAIN EDWARD EARLEY, of Paducah.
For Secretary of State, DR. BEN L. BRUNER, of Munfordsville.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction, PROF. J. G. CRABBE, of Ashland.
For Clerk of the Court of Appeals, NAPIER ADAMS, of Somerset.
For Commissioner of Agriculture, M. C. RANKIN, of Bethlehem, Henry county.
For R. R. Commissioner, Third Dist., A. T. SILER, of Whitley county.

which will be well supplied with all first-class equipments for the treatment of his patients. After completion the genial Doctor invites his many friends to call and inspect his new location.

THEATRICAL.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" will fill out the last half of the week at Maeuley's, with Saturday matinee.

The several advanced vaudeville acts that will be seen next week at the Mary Anderson should prove a strong card. Delighted audiences have filled this theater nightly since the opening.

"The Redemption of David Corson," just dramatized by Mrs. Lottie Blair Parker, author of "Way Down East" and other big hits, will be seen at the Masonic hall of next week. It is announced as one of the big best bills that will be offered this season.

For the first half of next week Maeuley's offering will be "The Man From Home," with W. T. Hogue as the star. Long residence in Indiana fits him for the part of Dan Voorhees like the Kokomo lawyer in the play.

The second week of the Hopkins continuous vaudeville will be ushered in with an even better bill than the opening one. Running steadily from 10:30 to 10:30 o'clock and presenting fifteen high class acts, the change has proved decidedly popular. Most of those who will appear next week will be new to the local stage, but several old favorites will be on the bill. From the present indications the Hopkins will attract larger audiences than ever.

MOURN HIS DEATH.

The Brothers and students of St. Xavier's College were deeply grieved when they learned of the death of the venerable Brother Domlnie at Baltimore last Saturday. Brother Domlnie was seventy years old and was a native of Ireland, having come to this country when he was a boy of about ten years. Prior to his entrance into the order, about thirty-eight years ago, he was Patrick O'Connell. During the first twenty years after he received orders he was assigned to this territory, and was at the head of the Xavierian order in Louisville. He was a prominent factor in the education of the youthful Catholics of Louisville. Brothers James and Stephen left Sunday and attended the funeral on Tuesday.

THE IRISH PRIEST.

Stephen Gwynn, Irish member of Parliament but not a Catholic, has said somewhere excellently that the Irish priest possesses the secret of Irish life. He does, and no entirely the key to it in his possession that Katherine Tynan doubts if any genius, however great, could give an adequate rendering of Irish life without including the priest.

NEWPORT

Democrats Nominate Costigan For Mayor by a Big Majority.

In a runaway race last Saturday M. J. Costigan defeated W. A. Elmer for the nomination for Mayor of Newport on the Democratic ticket. His majority was 429, and he made a phenomenal record, leading his ticket. A big vote was cast, and great interest was manifested on all sides. For Mayor nearly 2,100 votes were cast, and this is within about 400 of the total Democratic vote of Newport. Although both the Costigan and Elmer men worked hard it was seen early in the day that the claim of the Elmer men that the contest would be close was very inaccurate. For the Costigan votes kept piling up steadily. The result shows that the Democratic nominee is exceedingly strong, and that Krieger, the Republican candidate, will have his hands full at the November election. The successful candidate has served the city faithfully and well as its City Clerk, and is at present engaged in the undertaking business. As a business man he ranks foremost in the community, and is regarded as one of the most astute political organizers in Northern Kentucky. An inspection of the vote shows that Costigan carried every one of the six wards.

PILGRIMAGES.

Probable That Order For Their Suspension Will Be Rescinded.

It is probable that the order of the Pope suspending the pilgrimages from various parts of Europe in honor of the golden jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood will soon be rescinded. Many of the pilgrims have already paid for their return ticket, and the railway companies refuse to extend the time. There were at least a dozen pilgrimages from provinces of Italy due in Rome this month, but these were suspended too. Owing to the Socialist anti-clerical demonstration organized throughout Italy for September 20, the date of the fall of the temporal power, it is probable the Pope will not allow any foreign pilgrimages before that date. A programme had been arranged to cover the entire year of the jubilee celebration. It included trips from France, one from Metz, two Belgian, a German national pilgrimage, a Hungarian and an English. Foreign countries from which the pilgrims may come may afford them the necessary protection.

NEWPORT LOSSES PIONEER.

Patrick Shanahan, a pioneer of Newport, Ky., died Saturday at Springfield, Ohio, in his seventieth year. Death was due to a complication of ailments. The deceased was a relative of Philip Ryan, the attorney, of Newport, and also of Philip Ryan who lives in the Highlands. Patrick Shanahan was born in the parish of Holy Cross, Tipperary county, Ireland, and came to Newport when a lad in 1840, being one of the original settlers of the city. He leaves a widow and one daughter. The remains were brought to Newport, where the funeral and interment took place.

FATHER JANSEN INJURED.

Father H. W. Jansen, pastor of St. Francis de Sales church, was seriously injured at Paducah last Sunday night while escaping from a runaway street car. At Sixth and Broadway a depot line car split the switch. Father Jansen was crossing the street. One end of the car went down Sixth street and the other swung down Broadway. The priest jumped and fell, striking his back and head, inflicting an ugly wound in the head.

DOUBLE HEADER.

A double header between four of the best amateur ball teams in this section will be played tomorrow afternoon at Ellipse Park, Seventh and Kentucky streets. The Fox Ridge team will cross bats with the Zahn Stars at 2 o'clock and the New Albany Stars, a crack team from across the river, will meet the Uhlens, one of the best local nine, at 3:30 o'clock. As there is much rivalry between these teams a good game can be expected.

JAMES GREENE

425, 427 AND 429 EAST MARKET STREET.

Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Stoves, Ranges

LOWEST PRICES BEST TERMS

Homes Furnished Complete

Now is the time to take up the house furnishing question. Come in and let us show you the many features of our immense assortment. We think we can convince you that it is to your advantage to purchase here. We would invite your special attention to our stock of Carpets which range in quality from the cheapest Ingrain to the finest velvet.

If you will but visit our store you will readily realize that there will always be found the best values at Greene's. Satisfaction of the kind that satisfies marks every transaction. In fact, we don't consider a deal closed unless the customer is absolutely satisfied.

Fully prepared to furnish your home, we can safely say a larger, finer or more varied stock can not be found. When you buy from us you have the satisfaction of knowing that every article is exactly as represented, made in the most substantial manner, finish and design perfect.

FINE JEWELRY

We are now showing the finest assortment ever seen in this city. Diamonds, Gold Watches, Rings and Necklaces at most reasonable prices. Call and see our display of Handsome Silverware.

BRUNN, THE JEWELER.

530 West Market Street.

$16 Per 100 Bushels.

We have the most centrally located yards in the city, the best coal, the best teams, the best drivers and can guarantee the most satisfactory deliveries—what more could you ask?

SCANLON COAL CO., Incorporated.

Only Local Dealers Handling Original Straight Creek.

FALLS CITY MEAT MARKET

352 SECOND STREET. J. F. SULLIVAN, Manager.

HEADQUARTERS FOR

Dressed Poultry and Game of All Kinds in Season

You can always find the best the market affords in Choice Cuts of Beef, Spring Lamb, Pork and Cured Meats of all kinds. Also the Best and Purest Lard in the city. We also carry Early Fruits and Vegetables and all first-class market products.

LOUISVILLE PACKING COMPANY'S MEATS ONLY.

THE ONLY

SHOE POLISH

MADE IN THE SOUTH.

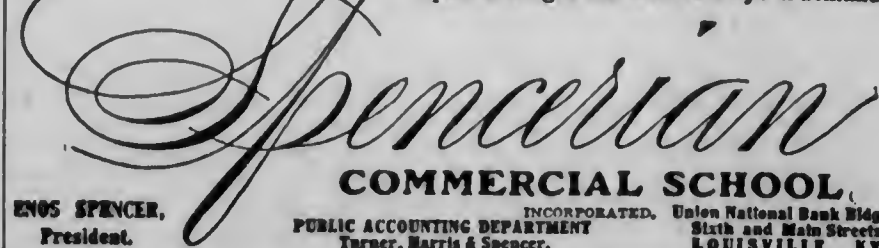

FOR SALE

BY ALL DEALERS.

Shorthand and Typewriting

Established Reliable System.

as taught at this institution is a valuable acquisition to any person. A stepping stone to success. Secures the best employment. Spencerian graduates are always in demand.

WHEN YOU WANT JOB PRINTING

Done With Neatness and Dispatch Call at This Office.

DR. J. T. CHAWK,

Veterinary Infirmary and Horse Shoeing Forge.

SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL HORSE SHOEING

Horses Called For and Delivered.

Both Phones 2399.

FORGE, 913-915 SEVENTH ST.

FINE WINES. CHAMPAGNES. AL. KOLB, LIQUORS. CIGARS.

345 West Green Street.